Choose OnLineTraining

Since 2008

We are a provider of 'just-in-time' intermediate CPD in Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND), which supports SENCos/SENDCos, teachers, teaching support staff and senior leaders to narrow the gap in attainment and improve life chances for all pupils. NQTs/RQTs also build a secure knowledge of the graduated approach at the start of their career.

Empowering

“ In terms of focusing the mind and upgrading the skill profiles of the classroom practitioners it has been of great benefit, not least in helping the support staff in particular to feel empowered in terms of goal and target setting.

– Special School Teacher (2021)

- ✓ A secure knowledge of the graduated approach
- ✓ An understanding of assessment checklists and techniques
- ✓ A toolkit of interventions to differentiate learning
- ✓ A support plan to embed learning immediately

Flexible

“ It was really useful to go through this course prior to the other staff at my school so that I can support them in their understanding and we can have a common language to talk about a child's needs.

– SENDCo (2021)

- ✓ Online content accessible anywhere at any time
- ✓ Teams learn together to improve collaborative working & support whole-school change
- ✓ Learning can be contextualised to meet your school's needs
- ✓ After completing a course, your staff can be trained to cascade it to others in your school

“ I think online learning is now a great option for schools. I saw that there was a need and this was the perfect solution.
